

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Khing Thai restaurant opened in Kurumba Maldives

Kurumba Maldives is delighted to announce the opening of Thai restaurant, the aim of which is to discover and create a Thai cuisine and an experience that invokes a sense of exploration and discovery.

Former "East" restaurant has been converted to "Khing Thai" restaurant. "Khing", in Thai language means 'ginger'. The interior design of the restaurants celebrates elements and objects that has been imported from Thailand to create a unique design.

Art wall paintings have been hand painted by one of the staff member. The restaurant is constructed from distinctive materials such as travertine tiles and natural woods. The Koi fish pond and Thai orchids hanging in wooden flower pots contributes to the design of charm and prosperity. Gold, red and brown finishing's are complimenting and enriching the interior design of the restaurant.

The ribbon cutting ceremony took place June 10th by Mr. Ryszard Majewski, the General Manager of Kurumba Maldives. VIP guests and the resort owners has been invited for the opening of a new Khing Thai restaurants.

The composition of Khing Thai restaurant has been enhanced to allow an unforgettable dine experiences for guests. Savoring à la carte dishes served in ceramic tableware finely painted with blue oriental motives. Khing Thai restaurant is open from 19:00hrs until 21:30hrs on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and closed on Wednesdays & Sundays.

The core of the menu is a Thai cuisine that emphasis on lightly prepared dishes with strong aromatic components and a spicy edge. Food flavors complex interplay of at least three and up to four or five fundamental taste senses in each dish or the overall meal: sour, sweet, salty, bitter, and spicy.

Charming ambiance of Khing Thai restaurant with it essential cuisine is the perfect venue for romantic or family dinners.
