

Kurumba
MALDIVES

Just moments away from the final countdown, we welcome you to our 32nd issue of Kurumba's Newsletter

2020 has definitely been a year to forget... Adjusting to new travel patterns and requirements, getting used to the 'New Normal', it certainly has been a year of learning for us.

We re-opened on December 1st, and to be honest, we did not know how many people would be travelling, and how many guests would be able to make their way to the Maldives in these last weeks of the year. And to our surprise, the bookings started flowing in, and before we knew it, we had almost sold out for this festive period!

The Maldives as a destination is still as popular as before, and as a single island resort, the product itself is tailor made to suit this new age of travel.

A huge thank you to our repeaters and the true Kurumba fans who have either already been back this 1st month, or have already booked their dates in the upcoming months of 2021. It is always such a wonderful experience to see them as they arrive on the boat, and though nowadays we may not be able to greet with a big, warm hug, it's an amazing feeling to welcome everybody back.

Sending you all our best wishes for the New Year. We hope that you and your families are happy and healthy, and we look forward to seeing all very soon here in Kurumba.

Providing a safe and hospitable environment for all our guests

As our own private island, and the obligatory tests that are required before entering the Maldives, arriving guests can feel assured that all precautions have been taken to ensure a safe and care-free stay with us. All of the hard work is done by the team in the background, with enhanced cleaning, sanitation and disinfections processes in place. As a guest, you get to focus on the fun and relaxation and sharing precious family moments that were perhaps not possible during the year.

Our 2020 Awards

In reviewing the achievements of this year, we are proud to share the recognitions that Kurumba Maldives has been awarded.

This year has been an extremely awkward period for world travel, but it was indeed very encouraging that even in these challenging times, people were still yearning for travel, and supporting their favourite destinations and properties. It is a true testament to the support Kurumba has across the globe, and the great experiences that have, and that will continue to take place, in humble little resort.

It's the most wonderful time of the year!

Though everything else in 2020 has pretty much been cast aside. Christmas and the New Year celebration have definitely not been canceled at Kurumba! The focus was on family and friends getting together to celebrate this special time of the year and look forward to brighter days ahead in 2021.

Highlights included a Christmas Tree Decoration event for little ones, a very special Christmas Eve dinner with an exquisite selection of festive delights, and of course Santa's grand arrival on the 25th, followed by a rocking cruise on Santa's dhoni around the island. The theme for the New Year's Gala Night is "Light and bright, ring in the new year with all things white!" encouraging everyone to dress up in the finest white fabrics and we will put 2020 in the rear view mirror, and make the best start for an awesome 2021!
