Story of Kurumba

A picture's worth a thousand words... and many of our guests have a enough of photos of Kurumba that will fill their lifetime with unforgettable memories. A family of four generations, stand side by side, proudly revealing that life isn't a matter of milestones but of moments; moments of happiness and love.

The first generation of the Schmidt family visited Kurumba Maldives about 26 years ago. As their family grew, so did the number of friends that Kurumba has the privilege to welcome. The Schmidt family now visits our wonderful island twice every year.

Many of us surely wonder why they keep coming back and the answer is simply about our warm and friendly staff members, always welcoming and eager to help. The convenience of snorkelling and swimming is also the reason why they keep returning, with the beach just a few steps away from their villa.

We are proud to have such loyal friends in Kurumba. If you are one of those, please share your story with us. We would love to hear from you!
